NOTES ON THE TALE OF NALA,

FOR THE USE OF CLASSICAL STUDENTS,

By JOHN PEILE, M.A., FELLOW AND TUTOR OF CHRIST'S COLLEGE.

London:

CAMBRIDGE UNIVERSITY PRESS WAREHOUSE, 17, PATERNOSTER ROW.

THE following pages are intended for the benefit of those persons who are deterred from the study of Sanskrit in consequence of the complicated characters in which that language is usually printed. The transliteration here employed differs from that hitherto adopted; but will, it is believed, be found more simple in several respects.

The annexed Table will show the sound to be given to each symbol:

a, as a in America; an obscure | n as n in inch.

j ", j " join.

h is a gentle aspiration used only at the end of a syllable.

m is an obscure nasal used as a substitute for m or n in certain cases.

When h follows any consonant, it is to be sounded separately from that consonant, instead of combining with it; as, gh in log-house, and th in pent-house.

SANSKRIT GRAMMAR.

A SKETCH OF SANSKRIT GRAMMAR'.

1. The Sanskrit alphabet consists of forty-seven letters, of which thirty three are consonants: these last are arranged according to the vocal organs on which they depend.

Vowels:

a, à, 1, i, u, ù, rı, ri, e, aı, o, au.

Consonants:

	hard.
Gutturals,		k	ĺ	\overline{kh}	١.	\mathbf{g}		gh		n.	1
Palatals,	ted	c	\ \d	\mathbf{ch}	ted,	J	ed.	jh	'n	ń	v.	ġ
Cerebrals,	pira	ţ	irat	ţh	unaspirat	ġ	aspirat	фh	nasals	ņ	sibilants	ş
Dentals,	unaspira	\mathbf{t}	asb	$^{ ext{th}}$	ınas	d	asb	dh	ng	n	sibi	s
Labials,	3	p		\mathbf{ph}	-	b		\mathbf{bh}		\mathbf{m}

Semivowels, y, r, l, v.

The simple aspirate, h.

To these must be added m, which is a slight nasal, called anusvara, and h, a soft aspirate, called visarga.

Each consonant is named by adding a short a; as ka, ca, ta, ta, pa.

The letter h here added to ten of the consonants shows that these letters are to be followed by an aspiration which does not change the sound of the letter itself.

2. The letters are divided into hard and soft. The hard consonants are k, c, t, t, p, with their aspirates, as well as the sibilants; the remaining consonants and all the vowels are soft.

3. The vowels have the following relations with each other:

$$a + a = \dot{a}$$
 $\dot{a} + a = \dot{a}$
 $a + 1 = e$
 $\dot{a} + 1 = a_1$
 $a + u = 0$
 $\dot{a} + \dot{a} = \dot{a}$
 $a + \dot{a} = \dot{a}$
 $\dot{a} + \dot{a} = \dot{a}$
 $a + \dot{a} = \dot{a}$
 $\dot{a} + \dot{a} = \dot{a}$
 $a + \dot{u} = 0$
 $\dot{a} + \dot{u} = a_1$
 $a + \dot{u} = a_1$
 $\dot{a} + \dot{a} = a_1$
 $a + \dot{a} = a_1$
 $\dot{a} + \dot{a} = a_1$
 $a + \dot{a} = a_1$
 $\dot{a} + \dot{a} = a_1$
 $a + \dot{a} = a_1$
 $\dot{a} + \dot{a} = a_1$
 $a + \dot{a} = a_1$
 $\dot{a} + \dot{a} = a_1$
 $a + \dot{a} = a_1$
 $\dot{a} + \dot{a} = a_1$
 $a + \dot{a} = a_1$
 $\dot{a} + \dot{a} = a_1$
 $a + \dot{a} = a_1$
 $\dot{a} + \dot{a} = a_1$
 $a + \dot{a} = a_1$
 $\dot{a} + \dot{a} = a_1$
 $a + \dot{a} = a_1$
 $\dot{a} + \dot{a} = a_1$
 $a + \dot{a} = a_1$
 $\dot{a} + \dot{a} = a_1$
 $a + \dot{a} = a_1$
 $\dot{a} + \dot{a} = a_1$
 $a + \dot{a} = a_1$
 $\dot{a} + \dot{a} = a_1$
 $a + \dot{a} = a_1$
 $\dot{a} + \dot{a} = a_1$
 $a + \dot{a} = a_1$
 $\dot{a} + \dot{a} = a_1$
 $a + \dot{a} = a_1$
 $\dot{a} + \dot{a} = a_1$
 $a + \dot{a} = a_1$
 $\dot{a} + \dot{a} = a_1$
 $a + \dot{a} = a_1$
 $\dot{a} + \dot{a} = a_1$

The change in a vowel caused by prefixing a is called guna; and that caused by prefixing a, is called vriddh.

4. Mutation of consonants. (a) When two consonants come together, without any intervening vowel, they must be either both hard or both soft, the former of the two being made to agree with the latter; thus tg, becomes dg, and dt becomes tt. (b) If the former of two consonants is an aspirate, it must be changed to its corresponding unaspirated letter; thus dhdh becomes ddh, and bhdh becomes bdh. (c) A final hard consonant becomes soft, and a final aspirated consonant becomes unaspirated; but a final hard consonant may be retained before a pause. (d) A final palatal may be changed to a guttural. (e) A dental preceding either a palatal, or a cerebral, (except s), is changed to the corresponding letter of that class. (f) If a grammatical inflection begins with a dental, that letter is changed to a cerebral, when added to a word ending in a cerebral. (g) A dental letter before 1 is changed to 1. (h) A final consonant may be changed into its own nasal before any word beginning with a nasal. (i) n must be written for n, whenever the latter follows ri, r, or s, either immediately, or with the intervention of a guttural, a labial, a vowel, y, v, h, visarga, or an anusvara derived from n or m. But if the n is final it must not be changed. (k) [a] ch is substituted for s, whenever the latter follows any consonant except a semi-vowel, nasal, or sibilant; thus tat srutva = tac srutva, by (e).

- = tac chrutvá, by (k).
- $[\beta]$ When n ends a word and s follows, the n must be written in and s may be changed to ch. (1) s not final becomes s after any vowel except a or a (even with the intervention of anusvara or visarga), and also after the semivowel r or l, or after k. (m) s before s becomes k; and a final s is usually changed to t, but sometimes it becomes k. (n) s becomes s before a palatal, and s becomes s before a cerebral. (o) s is dropped from stha, and stambh, when the preposition ut is prefixed. (p) When h follows any consonant that has an aspirate, that letter must be made soft, and then its aspirate may be substituted for h; thus vak harati becomes vag harati, for which we may write vag gharati. (q) A final y or v, preceded by a or a, may be dropped before any vowel. (r) t may be inserted before a word beginning with ch, if the preceding word ends in a short vowel; it may also be inserted if the preceding word ends in a long vowel or has a long vowel immediately before its last syllable; and it may likewise be inserted after the particles à and mà prefixed to verbal inflexions or derivatives beginning with ch.
- 5. Visarga. h, s, and r are mutually interchangeable. (a) A final s becomes h at the end of a verse or sentence; and it may be so changed before a sibilant, or before a hard letter followed by a sibilant, or a hard guttural or labial. (b) A final s becomes r after any vowel except a or a, the s being before any soft letter. (c) A final syllable as becomes o, when followed by a word beginning with a or a soft consonant, this a being rejected, and its place being marked by an apostrophe. (d) s final in the nom. mas. of the pronouns tat, etat is usually omitted. (e) s final, preceded by a, is dropped before any vowel except a; and, when preceded by a, is dropped before any soft letter.
- 6. Number and Gender. There are three numbers and three genders; the dual number being found in nouns, pronouns, and verbs; but there is no variation for gender in the verbs.
- 7. Nouns. Nouns have eight cases, which are arranged in the following order:
- 1. Nominative. 2 Accusative. 3. Instrumental. 4. Dative. 5. Ablative. 6. Genitive. 7. Locative. 8. Vocative. The instrumental has the sense of by or with; the ablative, that of from; and the locative, of in, or on.

The changes made for number and case will be seen in Table I. in which each noun is arranged according to its final letter.

- 8. Adjectives. Adjectives are declined like nouns, their terminations varying according to the gender. (a) The comparative is formed by adding tara, m. as, n. am, f. à, and the superlative by adding tama to the crude form; as punyas, -am, -à, holy, punyataras, -am, -à, more holy, punyataras, -am, -à, most holy. A final n is rejected before these terminations, and the affix vas in participles becomes t; as yuvan, young; yuvatara, younger; yuvatama, youngest; vidvas, wise; vidvattara, wiser; vidvattama, wisest. (b) Some adjectives add iyas for the comparative, and istha for the superlative; thus bala, strong, baliyas, stronger; m. -iyan, n. -iyas, f. -iyasi; balistha, strongest, m. isthas, n. -istham, f. istha.
- 9. Numerals. These are either cardinals or ordinals; the latter are all declinable, and some of the former, according to Table II.
- 10. Pronouns. The personal pronouns of the first and second persons are, asniat, the crude form of aham, I, and yuşmat, the crude form of tvam, thou. Adjective pronouns are declined like sarva, all.

The declensions will be found in Table III.

- 11. Verbs. (a) The moods and tenses of Sanskrit verbs are as follows:
 - 1. Indicative mood, present tense.
 - 2. 1st preterite, denoting an action recently past or not completed.
 - 2nd preterite, denoting an action absolutely past.
 - 4. 3rd preterite, denoting an action past of any period, especially very remote.
 - 5. 1st future, properly an agent with the present tense of the verb to be!.
 - 6. 2nd future, denoting an action indefinitely future.
 - 7. Imperative mood.
 - 8. Potential mood.
 - 9. Precative mood.
 - 10. Conditional mood.

¹ In Russian the past tense is an agent or participle, not varying for the person, but for gender and number.

(b) There are three Voices, viz. Active, Middle, and Passive. The terminations marking the various tenses and moods will be found in Table IV; and it must be remembered that the Passive in most cases takes the terminations belonging to the Middle voice. Before these terminations are attached, the root usually undergoes some modification. In connection with these changes, the verbs are arranged in ten classes or conjugations; but, with the exception of the tenth conjugation, the roots limit these changes to the Present, and 1st Preterite, Tenses, with the Imperative, and Potential Moods. These four are therefore called the conjugational Tenses. (c) Second Preterite. [a] If a root ends in a, the a which ends certain persons becomes au. $[\beta]$ There is usually a reduplication of a letter at the beginning of the root. Thus, if the root begins with the vowel a, that vowel becomes a, as, ad, eat, ada, I did eat. But if the a is followed by a double consonant, an is prefixed; as, arc, worship, anarca, I worshipped. [7] If a verb begins with 1 or u, the substitutes are either ıy and uv or i and ü; thus, ı, go, becomes ıyaya, I went, ıyetha, thou wentest; ukha, wither, uvokha, it withered; iyatus, they two went, ükhatus, they two withered. [8] An initial ri becomes ar; as ri, go, ara, I went: but when followed by a consonant it inserts n; as, rij, be firm, anrije, m. it was firm. [] A root beginning with a single consonant, which is neither a guttural nor an aspirate, doubles that consonant; as pac, cook, papaca, I cooked. [] An initial guttural is changed to its corresponding unaspirated palatal, and h is changed to j: thus kṛi, make, cakara; khan, dig, cakhana; grah, take, jagrāha; ghas, eat, jaghāsa; hṛi, take, jahāra. [η] Sometimes the reduplication of a semirowel is the corresponding vowel; as, yay, sacrifice, 19\(\delta_1\)a; vac, say, uv\(\delta\)ca. $[\theta]$ An aspirated consonant substitutes its corresponding unaspirated letter; as, bhram, whirl, babhra-[1] When the initial is a double consonant, the former only is repeated; as, sri, serve, sisraya. But if the double letter is a sibilant followed by a hard consonant, the latter is doubled; as, stu, praise, tustava; stha, stand, tasthau; while if the second letter is soft, the sibilant is doubled; as, smr1, remember, sasmara. If a sibilant is followed by a hard consonant and y, the middle letter is repeated; as sevut, ooze, cuseyota. [k] The vowel of the reduplication is a for a root whose medial vowel is a, a, ri, ri, or whose final is e, ai, or o; as, kri, make, cakara; bha, shine, babhau; gai, sing, jagau. a is also the vowel in the reduplication of bhu, be, babhuva. [A] Any other short vowel, whether medial or final, is repeated; as, mud, be pleased, mumude. A long vowel is made short; as, sik, sprinkle, sisike. For a medial diphthong the corresponding short vowel is used: as, pel, go, pipela; lok, see, luloka. $[\mu]$ Verbs which have a as their middle vowel, and which begin and end in a simple consonant, of which the former would be unchangeable in reduplication, do not allow reduplication before those terminations which begin with a vowel, or before an 1 inserted before any termination, but such verbs change the a into e; as from pac, 2 pret. 3 pers. papaca, pecatus, pecus; 1st pers. papaca, peciva, pecima. $[\nu]$ There is another form of the 2nd preterite made up of the root, followed by the syllable am, and the second preterite of either as, be, bhu, be, or kn, make, do; as, edh, increase.

S. 1.	cdhamasa	edhambabhuva	edhancakre
2.	edhámásitha	edhāmbabhūvītha	edhancakrise
3.	edhámása	edhámbabhúva	edhancakre
D. 1.	edhámásiva	edhámbabhúviva	edháńcakrivahe
2.	edhāmāsathus	edhámbabhúvathus	edhancakrathe
3.	edhāmāsatus	edhambabhuvatus	edháńcakráte
P. 1.	edhāmāsīma	edhámbabhúvima	edháńcaky mahe
2.	edhamasa	edhámbabhúva	edhancakridhve
3.	edhāmāsus	edhámbabhúvus	edhancakrire

This form of the second preterite is taken by all verbs of more than one syllable, as well as all derivative verbs. In this form as and bhu take the active voice, and kri follows the voice proper to the root. (d) The remaining tenses call for no especial remarks, their forms being given in the tables of verbs. (e) [a] In the first conjugation, the vowel a is inserted in the root before a vowel either medial or final, and also a before the terminations beginning with a consonant, which last is changed to a before v and m; thus bhu becomes bho, before a vowel bhav, while ji becomes je, and before a $[\beta]$ In the second conjugation the terminations are added to the root without the intervention of a vowel. An a is sometimes inserted before the middle or final vowel of the root; but a long vowel is unaltered. $[\gamma]$ In the third conjugation the radical syllable undergoes reduplication. [8] In the fourth conjugation ya is inserted between the root and the terminations of the conjugational tenses. [ϵ] In the fifth conjugation nu is added to the root, [ζ] In the sixth conjugation, the vowel of the root is unchanged, but a is inserted before the terminations. $[\eta]$ In the seventh conjugation na or n is inserted before the final consonant of the root. $[\theta]$ In the eighth conjugation u or o is inserted before the terminations. [1] In the ninth conjugation na, ni, and n are inserted before the terminations. [k] In the tenth conjugation a is inserted before a medial vowel and ay is affixed to the root. (f) Any verb may be made causal by adding to the root the vowel 1, which becomes ay before a vowel; the vowel à being prefixed to the radical vowel, thus bhu becomes bhau, which is changed to bhavi, and before a vowel to bhavay. (g) A verb becomes a desiderative by reduplication and the addition The vowel of reduplication is 1, for a medial or final a, a, 1, i, rı, ri, e, or aı; and the vowel is u, for u, u, o, or au. When a root begins with a vowel, the reduplication is the radical syllable itself followed by the final consonant with 1 prefixed. (h) In frequentatives the root is doubled. A verb beginning with a vowel repeats the whole, lengthening the syllable of the root. There are various modifications of the vowels. (i) Participles are either declinable or indeclinable. [a] The Present Participle Active is formed by changing into at, the termination of the 3rd pl. of the present tense. It is declined like tudat. [\beta] The Present Participle Middle is formed by adding ana to the same termination; but when, as in the first, fourth, sixth, and tenth conjugations, the inflective base ends in a, then mana is added for the participle. These middle participles are declined like nouns in a, as pacamanas, pacamana, pacamanam. Participles of the second preterite. The active is formed by adding vas to the inflective base, as it occurs before the terminations of the dual and plural numbers of the second preterite. The augment 1 is inserted after certain verbs. These participles are declined in the three genders as, from 1, go; iyivas; nom. iyivan, m. iyusi, f. iyivat, n.: kr., do, cakrivas; nom. cakrivan, m. cakrusi, f. cakrivat, n. The middle participle of the second preterite is formed by adding ana to the inflective base as it occurs before the termination of the third person plural; thus pac, cook, makes pecana; vac, speak, ūcana. [8] The indefinite past participle active is formed by adding to the root tavat; as kritavat, having made. It is used commonly with the The passive participle of the indefinitely past is formed by adding to to the root, as krita. This to is sometimes changed to na. [c] The future active participle is formed from the second future tense by changing the termination at of the 3rd pers. sing. to at, for the active voice, and mana for the middle. [ζ] Future participles of fitness, likelihood, or necessity, are formed by adding to the root the affixes tavya, aniya, or ya. These are declined in three genders; the feminine frequently being used as a noun. [n] Indeclinable participles. There are two participles of the past tense which admit of neither gender, number, nor case. They are generally formed from the past passive participle by changing ta into två, or da into dvå; but when the verb has a preposition before it, the affix is tya, after a short vowel, and ya after a long one. (k) Infinitive Mood. This is an indeclinable noun and may be formed from the first future by changing ta into tum.

THE CAMBRIDGE PARAGRAPH BIBLE of the Authorized English Version, with the Text Revised by a Collation of its Early and other Principal Editions, the Use of the Italic Type made uniform, the Marginal References remodelled, and a Critical Introduction prefixed, by F. H. A. SCRIVENER, M.A., LL.D., Editor of the Greek Testament, Codex Augiensis, &c., and one of the Revisers of the Authorized Version. Crown 4to, gilt. 21s.

From the Times. "Students of the Bible should be particu-larly grateful to (the Cambridge University Press) for having produced, with the able assistance of Dr Scrivener, a complete critical edition of the Authorized Version of the English Bible, an edition such as, to use the words of the Editor, 'would have been executed long ago had this version been nothing more than the greatest and best known of English classics.' Falling at a time when the formal revision of this version has been undertaken by a distinguished company of scholars and divines, the publication of this edition must be considered most opportune.

From the Athenaum.
"Apart from its religious importance, the English Bible has the glory, which but few sister versions indeed can claim, of being the chief classic of the language, of having, in chief classic of the language, of naving, in conjunction with Shakspeare, and in an im-measurable degree more than he, fixed the language beyond any possibility of important change. Thus the recent contributions to the literature of the subject, by such workers as Mr Francis Fry and Canon Westcott, appeal to a wide range of sympathies; and to these may now be added Dr Scrivener, well known for his labours in the cause of the Greek Testa-ment criticism, who has brought out, for the Syndics of the Cambridge University Press, an edition of the English Bible, according to the text of 1611, revised by a comparison with later issues on principles stated by him in his Introduction. Here he enters at length into the history of the chief editions of the version, and of such features as the marginal notes, the use of italic type, and the changes of orthography, as well as into the most interesting question as to the original texts from which our translation is produced."

From the Methodist Recorder.

"This noble quarto of over 1300 pages is in every respect worthy of editor and publishers alike. The name of the Cambridge University Press is guarantee enough for its perfection in outward form, the name of the editor is equal guarantee for the worth and accuracy of its contents. Without question, it is the best Paragraph Bible ever published, and its reduced price of a guinea brings it within reach of a large number of students,"

From the London Quarterly Review.

"The work is worthy in every respect of the editor's fame, and of the Cambridge University Press. The noble English Version, to which our country and religion owe so much, was probably never presented before in so perfect a form."

- THE CAMBRIDGE PARAGRAPH BIBLE. STUDENT'S EDITION, on good writing paper, with one column of print and wide margin to each page for MS, notes. This edition will be found of great use to those who are engaged in the task of Biblical criticism. Two Vols. Crown 4to. gilt. 31s. 6d.
- THE LECTIONARY BIBLE, WITH APOCRYPHA, divided into Sections adapted to the Calendar and Tables of Lessons of 1871. Crown 8vo. 3s. 6d.
- THE BOOK OF ECCLESIASTES, with Notes and Introduction. By the Very Rev. E. H. PLUMPTRE, D.D., Dean of Wells. Large Paper Edition. Demy 8vo. 7s. 6d.

"No one can say that the Old Testament is a dull or worn-out subject after reading this singularly attractive and also instructive com-mentary. Its wealth of literary and historical illustration surpasses anything to which we can point in English exegesis of the Old Testa-ment; indeed, even Delitzsch, whose pride it is to leave no source of illustration unexplored, is far inferior on this head to Dr Plumptre."-Academy, Sept. 10, 1881.

"The value of this reprint is considerable to liturgical students, who will now be able to consult in their own libraries a work absolutely indispensable to a right understanding of the history of the Prayer-Book, but which till now usually necessitated a visit to some public library, since the rarity of the volume made its cost prohibitory to all but a few.... Messrs Procter and Wordsworth have discharged their editorial task with much care and judgment, though the conditions under which they have been working are such as to hide that fact from all but experts."—Literary Churchman.

"Not only experts in liturgiology, but all persons interested in the history of the Anglican Book of Common Prayer, will be grateful to the Syndicate of the Cambridge University Press for forwarding the publication of the volume which bears the above title, and which has recently appeared under their auspices."—Notes and Queries.
"Cambridge has worthily taken the lead

"Cambridge has worthily taken the lead with the Breviary, which is of especial value for that part of the reform of the Prayer-Book which will fit it for the wants of our time.... For all persons of religious tastes the Breviary, with its mixture of Psalm and Anthem and Prayer and Hymn, all hanging one on the other, and connected into a harmonious whole, must be deeply interesting."—Church Quarterly Review.

MATHEMATICS, PHYSICAL SCIENCE, &c. MATHEMATICAL AND PHYSICAL PAPERS.

Sir W. THOMSON, LL.D., D.C.L., F.R.S., Professor of Natural Philosophy in the University of Glasgow. Collected from different Scientific Periodicals from May 1841, to the present time. Vol. 1. [Vol. II. 15s. Immediately.

Demy 8vo. 18s.

"Wherever exact science has found a fol-lower Sir William Thomson's name is known as a leader and a master. For a space of 40 years each of his successive contributions to knowledge in the domain of experimental and mathematical physics has been recognized as marking mantar physics has been recognized as marking a stage in the progress of the subject. But, unhappily for the mere learner, he is no writer of text-books. His eager fertility overflows into the nearest available journal... The papers in this volume deal largely with the subject of the dynamics of heat. They begin with two or three articles which were in part written at the age of 17, before the author had commenced residence as an undergraduate in Cambridge. No student of mechanical engineering, who aims at the higher levels of his profession can afford to be ignorant of the principles and methods set forth in these great memoirs... The article on the absolute measurement of electric and galvanic quantities (1851) has borne rich and abundant fruit. Twenty years after its date the International Conference of Electricians at Paris, assisted by the author himself, elaborated and promulgated a series of rules and units which are but the detailed outcome of the principles laid down in these papers."—The Times.

"We are convinced that nothing has had a greater effect on the progress of the theories of electricity and magnetism during the last ten years than the publication of Sir W. Thomson's years that the production of Sit V. Johnson reprint of papers on electrostatics and magnetism, and we believe that the present volume is destined in no less degree to further the advancement of physical science. We owe the modern dynamical theory of heat almost wholly to Joule and Thomson, and Clausius and Rantine on the state of the state o kine, and we have here collected together the whole of Thomson's investigations on this subject, together with the papers published jointly by himself and Joule."—Glasgow Herald.

PHYSICAL PAPERS, MATHEMATICAL ANDGEORGE GABRIEL STOKES, M.A., D.C.L., LL.D., F.R.S., Fellow of Pembroke College, and Lucasian Professor of Mathematics in the University of Cambridge. Reprinted from the Original Journals and Transactions, with Additional Notes by the Author. Vol. I. Demy

VOL. II. 15s. 8vo. 15s.

"The volume of Professor Stokes's papers contains much more than his hydrodynamical papers. The undulatory theory of light is treated, and the difficulties connected with its application to certain phenomena, such as aber-ration, are carefully examined and resolved. Such difficulties are commonly passed over with scant notice in the text-books... Those to whom difficulties like these are real stumblingblocks will still turn for enlightenment to Pro-fessor Stokes's old, but still fresh and still necessary, dissertations. There nothing is slurred over, nothing extenuated. We learn exactly the weaknesses of the theory, and the direction in which the completer theory of the future must be sought for. The same spirit pervades the papers on pure mathematics which are included in the volume. They have a severe accuracy of style which well befits the subtle nature of the subjects, and inspires the com-pletest confidence in their author."—The Times.

"Mr Willis Bund has edited 'A Selection of Cases from the State Trials' which is likely to form a very valuable addition to the standard literature... There can be no doubt, therefore, of the interest that can be found in the State trials. But they are large and unwieldy, and it is impossible for the general reader to come across them. Mr Willis-Bund has therefore across them. Mr Willis Bund has therefore done good service in making a selection that is in the first volume reduced to a commodious form."—The Examiner.

"This work is a very useful contribution to that important branch of the constitutional history of England which is concerned with the growth and development of the law of treason, as it may be gathered from trials before the ordinary courts. The author has very wisely distinguished these cases from those of impeachment for treason before Parliament, which he proposes to treat in a future volume under the general head 'Proceedings in Parliament.''

— The Academy.

"This is a work of such obvious utility that the only wonder is that no one should have undertaken it before . . . In many respects there-fore, although the trials are more or less abridged, this is for the ordinary student's purpose not only a more handy, but a more useful work than Howell's."—Saturday Review.

"But, although the book is most interesting to the historian of constitutional law, it is also not without considerable value to those who not without considerable value to those who seek information with regard to procedure and the growth of the law of evidence. We should add that Mr Willis-Bund has given short prefaces and appendices to the trials, so as to form a connected narrative of the events in history to which they relate. We can thoroughly recommend the book.".—Law Times.

"To a large class of readers Mr Willis-Bund's compilation will thus be of great assistance for he presents in a convenient form a sistance, for he presents in a convenient form a judicious selection of the principal statutes and the leading cases bearing on the crime of trea-son... For all classes of readers these volumes possess an indirect interest, arising from the nature of the cases themselves, from the men who were actors in them, and from the numerous points of social life which are incidentally illuspoints of social the which are incidentally illustrated in the course of the trials. On these features we have not dwelt, but have preferred to show that the book is a valuable contribution to the study of the subject with which it professes to deal, namely, the history of the law of treason."—Athenæum.

"As scholars and as editors Messrs Abdy and Walker have done their work well . . . For one thing the editors deserve special commendation. They have presented Gaius to the reader with few notes and those merely by way of reference or necessary explanation. Thus the Roman jurist is allowed to speak for himself, and the reader feels that he is really studying Roman law in the original, and not a fanciful representation of it."—Atheneum.

LIFE AND TIMES OF STEIN, OR GERMANY AND PRUSSIA IN THE NAPOLEONIC AGE, by J. R. SEELEY, M.A., Regius Professor of Modern History in the University of Cambridge, with Portraits and Maps. 3 Vols. Demy 8vo. 48s.

"If we could conceive anything similar to a protective system in the intellectual department, we might perhaps look forward to a time when our historians would raise the cry of protection for native industry. Of the unquestionably greatest German men of modern history—I speak of Frederick the Great, Goethe and Stein—the first two found long since in Carlyle and Lewes biographers who have undoubtedly driven their German competitors out of the field. And now in the year just past Professor Seeley of Cambridge has presented us with a biography of Stein which, though it modestly declines competition with German works and disowns the presumption of teaching us Germans our own history, yet casts into the shade by its brilliant superiority all that we have ourselved the supplementation."—Deutsche Runderdau.

We congratulate Cambridge and her Professor of History on the appearance of such a noteworthy production. And we may add that it is something upon which we may congratulate England that on the especial field of the Germans, history, on the history of their own country, by the use of their own literary weapons, an Englishman has produced a history of Germany in the Napoleonic age far superior to any that exists in German."—Examiner.

A CATALOGUE OF ANCIENT MARBLES IN GREAT BRITAIN, by Prof. ADOLF MICHAELIS. Translated by C. A. M. FENNELL, M.A., late Fellow of Jesus College. Royal 8vo. Roxburgh (Morocco back), £2. 2s.

"The object of the present work of Michaelis is to describe and make known the vast treasures of ancient sculpture now accumulated in the galleries of Great Britain, the extent and value of which are scarcely appreciated, and chiefly so because there has hitherto been little accessible information about them. To the loving labours of a learned German the owners of art treasures in England are for the second time indebted for a full description of their rich possessions. Wangen gave to the private collections of pictures the advantage of his in spection and cultivated acquaintance with art, and now Michaelis performs the same office for the still less known private hoards of antique sculptures for which our country is so remarkable. The book is beautifully executed, and with its few handsome plates, and excellent indexes, does much credit to the Cambridge Press. It has not been printed in German, but appears for the first time in the English translation. All lovers of true art and of good work should be grateful to the Syndics of the University Press for the liberal facilities afforded by them towards the production of this important volume by Professor Michaelis."—Saturday Review.

"'Ancient Marbles' here mean relics of Greek and Roman origin which have been imported into Great Britain from classical soil. How rich this island is in respect to these remains of ancient art, every one knows, but it is equally well known that these treasures had been most inadequately described before the author of this work undertook the labour of description. Professor Michaelis has achieved so high a fame as an authority in classical archæology that it seems tunnecessary to say how good a book this is."—The Antiquary.

of Cambridge in the Lent Term, 1880. By J. G. FITCH, M.A., Her Majesty's Inspector of Schools. Crown 8vo. New Edition. 5s.

"The lectures will be found most interesting, and deserve to be carefully studied, not only by persons directly concerned with instruction, but by parents who wish to be able to exercise an intelligent judgment in the choice of schools and teachers for their children. For ourselves, we could almost wish to be of school age again, to learn history and geography from some one who could teach them after the pattern set by Mr Fitch to his audience. . . But perhaps Mr Fitch's observations on the general conditions of school-work are even more important than what he says on this or that branch of study."—Saturday Review

"It comprises fifteen lectures, dealing with such subjects as organisation, discipline, examining, language, fact knowledge, science, and methods of instruction; and though the lectures make no pretention to systematic or exhaustive treatment, they yet leave very little of the ground uncovered; and they combine in an admirable way the exposition of sound principles with practical suggestions and illustrations which are evidently derived from wide and varied experience, both in teaching and in examining."—Scotsman.

"As principal of a training college and as a Government inspector of schools, Mr Fitch has got at his fingers, ends the working of primary education, while as assistant commissioner to the late Endowed Schools Commission he has seen something of the machinery of our higher schools... Mr Fitch's book covers so wide a field and touches on so many burning questions that we must be content to recommend it as the best existing vade mecum for the teacher... He is always sensible, always judicious, never wanting in tact... Mr Fitch is a scholar; he pretends to no knowledge that he does not possess; he brings to his work the ripe experience of a well-stored mind, and he possesses in a remarkable degree the art of exposition."

THEORY AND PRACTICE OF TEACHING. By the Rev. EDWARD THRING, M.A., Head Master of Uppingham School, late Fellow of King's College, Cambridge. Crown 8vo. 6s.

"Any attempt to summarize the contents of the volume would fail to give our readers a taste of the pleasure that its perusal has given us."—Journal of Education.

'In his book we have something very different from the ordinary work on education. It is full of life. It comes fresh from the busy workshop of a teacher at once practical and enthusiastic, who has evidently taken up his pen, not for the sake of writing a book, but under the compulsion of almost passionate earnestness, to give expression to his views on questions connected with the teacher's life and work. For suggestiveness and clear incisive statement of the fundamental problems which arise in dealing with the minds of children, we know of no more useful book for any teacher who is willing to throw heart, and conscience, and honesty into his work."—New York Evening Yost.

GENERAL EDITOR: THE VERY REVEREND J. J. S. PEROWNE, D.D., DEAN OF PETERBOROUGH.

THE want of an Annotated Edition of the BIBLE, in handy portions, suitable for School use, has long been felt.

In order to provide Text-books for School and Examination purposes, the CAMBRIDGE UNIVERSITY PRESS has arranged to publish the several books of the BIBLE in separate portions at a moderate price, with introductions and explanatory notes.

The Very Reverend J. J. S. PEROWNE, D.D., Dean of Peterborough, has undertaken the general editorial supervision of the work, assisted by a staff of eminent coadjutors. Some of the books have been already edited or undertaken by the following gentlemen:

Rev. A. CARR, M.A., Assistant Master at Wellington College.

Rev. T. K. CHEYNE, M.A., Fellow of Balliol College, Oxford.

Rev. S. Cox, Nottingham.

Rev. A. B. DAVIDSON, D.D., Professor of Hebrew, Edinburgh.

The Ven. F. W. FARRAR, D.D., Archdeacon of Westminster.

C. D. GINSBURG, LL.D.

Rev. A. E. HUMPHREYS, M.A., Fellow of Trinity College, Cambridge.

Rev. A. F. KIRKPATRICK, M.A., Fellow of Trinity College, Regius Professor of Hebrew.

Rev. J. J. LIAS, M.A., late Professor at St David's College, Lampeter.

Rev. J. R. LUMBY, D.D., Norrisian Professor of Divinity.

Rev. G. F. MACLEAR, D.D., Warden of St Augustine's College, Canterbury, Rev. H. C. G. MOULE, M.A., Fellow of Trinity College, Principal of Ridley-Hall, Cambridge.

Rev. W. F. MOULTON, D.D., Head Master of the Leys School, Cambridge.

Rev. E. H. PEROWNE, D.D., Master of Corpus Christi College, Cambridge, Examining Chaplain to the Bishop of St Asaph.

The Ven. T. T. PEROWNE, M.A., Archdeacon of Norwich.

Rev. A. Plummer, M.A., D.D., Master of University College, Durham.

The Very Rev. E. H. PLUMPTRE, D.D., Dean of Wells.

Rev. W. SIMCOX, M.A., Rector of Weyhill, Hants.

ROBERTSON SMITH, M.A., Lord Almoner's Professor of Arabic.

Rev. H. D. M. SPENCE, M.A., Hon. Canon of Gloucester Cathedral.

Rev. A. W. STREANE, M.A., Fellow of Corpus Christi College, Cambridge.

Now Ready.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO ST MATTHEW. By the Rev. A. CARR, M.A. With 4 Maps. 4s. 6d.

"With the 'Notes,' in the volume before us, we are much pleased; so far as we have searched, they are scholarly and sound. The quotations from the Classics are apt; and the references to modern Greek form a pleasing feature."—The Churchman.
"Copious illustrations, gathered from a great variety of sources, make his notes a very valuable aid to the student. They are indeed remarkably interesting, while all explanations on meanings, applications, and the like are distinguished by their lucidity and good sense."—Pall Mall Gravite.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO ST MARK. By the Rev. G. F. MACLEAR, D.D. With 3 Maps. 45. 6d.

"The Cambridge Greek Testament, of which Dr Maclear's edition of the Gospel according to St Mark is a volume, certainly supplies a want. Without pretending to compete with the leading commentaries, or to embody very much original research, it forms a most satisfactory introduction to the study of the New Testament in the original . . . Dr Maclear's introduction contains all that to the study of the New Testament in the original... Dr Maclear's introduction contains all that is known of St Mark's life, with references to passages in the New Testament in which he is mentioned; an account of the circumstances in which the Gospel was composed, with an estimate of the influence of St Peter's teaching upon St Mark; an excellent sketch of the special characteristics of this Gospel; an analysis, and a chapter on the text of the New Testament generally... The work is completed by two good maps, one of Palestine in the time of our Lord, the other, on a large scale, of the Sea of Galilee and the country immediately surrounding it."—Saturday Review.

"The Notes, which are admirably put together, seem to contain all that is necessary for the guidance of the student, as well as a judicious selection of passages from various sources illustrating scenery and manners."—Academy.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO ST LUKE. By Archdeacon FARRAR. With 4 Maps. 6s.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO ST JOHN. By the Rev. A. PLUMMER, M.A., D.D. With 4 Maps. 6s.

"A valuable addition has also been made to 'The Cambridge Greek Testament for Schools,' Dr Plummer's notes on 'the Gospel according to St John' are scholarly, concise, and instructive, and embody the results of much thought and wide reading."—Expositor.

THE PITT PRESS SERIES.

I. GREEK.

THE ANABASIS OF XENOPHON, BOOKS I. III. IV. and V. With a Map and English Notes by ALFRED PRETOR, M.A., Fellow of St Catharine's College, Cambridge; Editor of Persius and Cicero ad Atticum Book I. 25. each.

"In Mr Pretor's edition of the Anabasis the text of Kühner has been followed in the main, while the exhaustive and admirable notes of the great German editor have been largely utilised. These notes deal with the minutest as well as the most important difficulties in construction, and all questions of history, antiquity, and geography are briefly but very effectually elucidated."—The Examiner.

Examiner.

"We welcome this addition to the other books of the Anabasis so ably edited by Mr Pretor. Although originally intended for the use of candidates at the university local examinations, yet this edition will be found adapted not only to meet the wants of the junior student, but even adapted aboles will find much in this work that will seem; its newed." The School of the state of the property of the state of th Attiough originally intended for the use of candidates at the university local examinations, yet this edition will be found adapted not only to meet the wants of the junior student, but even advanced scholars will find much in this work that will repay its perusal."—The Schoolmaster.

"Mr Pretor's 'Anabasis of Xenophon, Book IV,' displays a union of accurate Cambridge scholarship, with experience of what is required by learners gained in examining middle-class schools. The text is large and clearly printed, and the notes explain all difficulties. . . . Mr Pretor's notes seem to be all that could be wished as regards grammar, geography, and other matters."—The Academy.

BOOKS II. VI. and VII. By the same Editor. 2s. 6d. each.

"Another Greek text, designed it would seem for students preparing for the local examinations, is 'Xenophon's Anabasis,' Book II., with English Notes, by Alfred Pretor, M.A. The editor has exercised his usual discrimination in utilising the text and notes of Kuhner, with the occasional assistance of the best hints of Schneider, Vollbrecht and Macmichael on critical matters, and of Mr R. W. Taylor on points of history and geography. . . When Mr Pretor commits himself to Commentator's work, he is eminently helpful. . . Had we to introduce a young Greek scholar to Xenophon, we should esteem ourselves fortunate in having Pretor's text-book as our chart and guide." -Contemporary Review.

- THE ANABASIS OF XENOPHON, by A. PRETOR, M.A., Text and Notes, complete in two Volumes. 7s. 6d.
- AGESILAUS OF XENOPHON. The Text revised with Critical and Explanatory Notes, Introduction, Analysis, and Indices. By H. HAILSTONE, M.A., late Scholar of Peterhouse, Cambridge, Editor of Xenophon's Hellenics, etc. 25.6d.
- ARISTOPHANES—RANAE. With English Notes and Introduction by W. C. Green, M.A., Assistant Master at Rugby School. 3s. 6d.
- ARISTOPHANES—AVES. By the same Editor. New Edition. 3s. 6d.

"The notes to both plays are excellent. Much has been done in these two volumes to render the study of Aristophanes a real treat to a boy instead of a drudgery, by helping him to understand the fun and to express it in his mother tongue."—The Examiner.

II. LATIN.

M. T. CICERONIS DE AMICITIA. Edited by J. S. Reid, M.L., Fellow and Assistant Tutor of Gonville and Caius College, Cambridge. New Edition, with Additions. 3s. 6d.

"Mr Reid has decidedly attained his aim, namely, 'a thorough examination of the Latinity of the dialogue.'... The revision of the text is most valuable, and comprehends sundry acute corrections... This volume, like Mr Reid's other editions, is a solid gain to the scholarship of the country."—Atheneam.

"A more distinct gain to scholarship is Mr Reid's able and thorough edition of the De Amicitith of Cicero, a work of which, whether we regard the exhaustive introduction or the instructive and most suggestive commentary, it would be difficult to speak too highly. . . . When we come to the commentary, we are only amazed by its fulness in proportion to its bulk. Nothing is overlooked which can tend to enlarge the learner's general knowledge of Ciceronian Latin or to elucidate the text."—Saturday Review.

M. T. CICERONIS CATO MAJOR DE SENECTUTE. Edited by J. S. Reid, M.L. 3s. 6d.

"The notes are excellent and scholarlike, adapted for the upper forms of public schools, and likely to be useful even to more advanced students."—Guardian.

M. T. CICERONIS ORATIO PRO ARCHIA POETA. Edited by J. S. REID, M.L. Revised Edition.

"It is an admirable specimen of careful editing. An Introduction tells us everything we could wish to know about Archias, about Cicero's connexion with him, about the merits of the trial, and the genuineness of the speech. The text is well and carefully printed. The notes are clear and scholar-like... No boy can master this little volume without feeling that he has advanced a long step in scholar-ship."—The Academy.

M. T. CICERONIS PRO L. CORNELIO BALBO ORA-TIO. Edited by J. S. REID, M.L. 15. 6d.

"We are bound to recognize the pains devoted in the annotation of these two orations to the minute and thorough study of their Latinity, both in the ordinary notes and in the textual appendices."—Saturday Keview.

PRO P. CORNELIO SULLA CICERONIS ORATIO. Edited by J. S. Reid, M.L. 3s. 6d.

"Mr Reid is so well known to scholars as a commentator on Cicero that a new work from him scarcely needs any commendation of ours. His edition of the speech Pro Sulla is fully equal in merit to the volumes which he has already published... It would be difficult to speak too highly of the notes. There could be no better way of gaining an insight into the characteristics of Cicero's style and the Latinity of his period than by making a careful study of this speech with the aid of Mr Reid's commentary... Mr Reid's intimate knowledge of the minutest details of scholarship enables him to detect and explain the slightest points of distinction between the usages of different authors and different periods... The notes are followed by a valuable appendix on the text, and another on points of orthography; an excellent index brings the work to a close." Saturday Review.

CICERONIS PRO CN. PLANCIO ORATIO. Edited by H. A. HOLDEN, LL.D., late Head Master of Ipswich_School.

"As a book for students this edition can have few rivals. It is enriched by an excellent introduction and a chronological table of the principal events of the life of Cicero; while in its appendix, and in the notes on the text which are added, there is much of the greatest value. The volume is neatly got up, and is in every way commendable."—The Scotsman.

"Dr Holden's own edition is all that could be expected from his elegant and practised scholarship... Dr Holden has evidently made up his mind as to the character of the commentary most likely to be generally useful; and he has carried out his views with admirable thoroughness."—Academy.

thoroughness."-Academy.

"Dr Holden has given us here an excellent edition. The commentary is even unusually full and complete; and after going through it carefully, we find little or nothing to criticize. There is an excellent introduction, lucidly explaining the circumstances under which the speech was delivered, a table of events in the life of Cicero and a useful index." Spectator, Oct. 29, 1881.

- M. T. CICERONIS IN Q. CAECILIUM DIVINATIO ET IN C. VERREM ACTIO PRIMA. With Introduction and Notes by W. E. Heitland, M.A., and Herbert Cowie, M.A., Fellows of St John's College, Cambridge. 3s.
- M. T. CICERONIS ORATIO PRO L. MURENA, with English Introduction and Notes. By W. E. HEITLAND, M.A., Fellow and Classical Lecturer of St John's College, Cambridge. Second Edition, carefully revised. 35.
- "Those students are to be deemed fortunate who have to read Cicero's lively and brilliant oration for L. Murena with Mr Heitland's handy edition, which may be pronounced 'four-square' in point of equipment, and which has, not without good reason, attained the honours of a second edition."—Saturday Review.

- P. OVIDII NASONIS FASTORUM LIBER VI. With a Plan of Rome and Notes by A. SIDGWICK, M.A. Tutor of Corpus Christi College, Oxford. 15. 6d.
- "Mr Sidgwick's editing of the Sixth Book of Ovid's Fasti furnishes a careful and serviceable volume for average students. It eschews 'construes' which supersede the use of the dictionary, but gives full explanation of grammatical usages and historical and mythical allusions, besides illustrating peculiarities of style, true and false derivations, and the more remarkable variations of the text."—Saturday Review.
- "It is eminently good and useful. . . . The Introduction is singularly clear on the astronomy of Ovid, which is properly shown to be ignorant and confused; there is an excellent little map of Rome, giving just the places mentioned in the text and no more; the notes are evidently written by a practical schoolmaster."—The Academy.
- GAI IULI CAESARIS DE BELLO GALLICO. COM-MENT. I. II. With English Notes and Map by A. G. PESKETT, M.A., Fellow of Magdalene College, Cambridge, Editor of Caesar De Bello Gallico, VII. 2s. 6d.
- BOOKS III. AND VI. By the same Editor. 1s. 6d. each.

"In an unusually succinct introduction he gives all the preliminary and collateral information that is likely to be useful to a young student; and, wherever we have examined his notes, we have found them eminently practical and satisfying. . . The book may well be recommended for careful study in school or college."—Saturday Review.

"The notes are scholarly, short, and a real help to the most elementary beginners in Latin prose."—The Examiner.

"Much more attention is given to the literary aspect of the poem than is usually paid to it in editions intended for the use of beginners. The introduction points out the distinction between primitive and literary epics, explains the purpose of the poem, and gives an outline of the story."

"Mr Arthur Sidgwick's 'Vergil, Aeneid, Book XII.' is worthy of his reputation, and is distinguished by the same acuteness and accuracy of knowledge, appreciation of a boy's difficulties and ingenuity and resource in meeting them, which we have on other occasions had reason to praise in these pages."—The Academy.

"As masterly in its clearly divided preface and appendices as in the sound and independent character of its annotations. . . There is a great deal more in the notes than mere compilation and suggestion. . . . No difficulty is left unnoticed or unhandled."—Saturday Review.

OUINTUS CURTIUS. A Portion of the History. (ALEXANDER IN INDIA.) By W. E. HEITLAND, M.A., Fellow and Lecturer of St John's College, Cambridge, and T. E. RAVEN, B.A., Assistant Master in Sherborne School. 3s. 6d.

"Equally commendable as a genuine addition to the existing stock of school-books is Alexander in India, a compilation from the eighth and ninth books of Q. Curtius, edited for the Pitt Press by Messrs Heitland and Raven... The work of Curtius has merits of its own, which, in former generations, made it a favourite with English scholars, and which still make it a popular text-book in Continental schools..... The reputation of Mr Heitland is a sufficient guarantee for the scholarship of the notes, which are ample without being excessive, and the book is well furnished with all that is needful in the nature of maps, indexes, and appendices."—Academy.

BEDA'S ECCLESIASTICAL HISTORY, BOOKS

III., IV., the Text from the very ancient MS. in the Cambridge University Library, collated with six other MSS. Edited, with a life from the German of EBERT, and with Notes, &c. by J. E. B. MAYOR, M.A., Professor of Latin, and J. R. LUMBY, D.D., Norrisian Professor of Divinity. Revised edition. 7s. 6d.

"To young students of English History the illustrative notes will be of great service, while the study of the texts will be a good introduction to Mcdieval Latin."—The Nonconformist.

"In Bede's works Englishmen can go back to origines of their history, unequalled for form and matter by any modern European nation. Prof. Mayor has done good service in rendering a part of Bede's greatest work accessible to those who can read Latin with case. He has adorned this edition of the third and fourth books of the 'Ecclesiastical History' with that amazing crudition for which he is unrivalled among Englishmen and rarely equalled by Germans. And however interesting and valuable the text may be, we can certainly apply to his notes the expression, La sauce vant mient, que the poisson. They are literally crammed with interesting information about early English life. For though ecclesiastical in name, Bede's history treats of all parts of the national life, since the Church had points of contact with all,"—Examiner.

- LE VERRE D'EAU. A Comedy, by SCRIBE. With a Biographical Memoir, and Grammatical, Literary and Historical Notes. By the same Editor.
- "It may be national prejudice, but we consider this edition far superior to any of the series which hitherto have been edited exclusively by foreigners. Mr Colbeck seems better to understand the wants and difficulties of an English boy. The etymological notes especially are admirable. . . . The historical notes and introduction are a piece of thorough honest work."—Journal of Education.

Gallic., Officier d'Académie, Assistant Master of Harrow School, and G. W. PROTHERO, M.A., Fellow and Tutor of King's College, Cambridge. 2s. 6d.
- "Messrs Masson and Prothero have, to judge from the first part of their work, performed with much discretion and care the task of editing Voltaire's Siècle de Louis XIV for the 'Pitt Press Series.' Besides the usual kind of notes, the editors have in this case, influenced by Voltaire's 'summary way of treating much of the history, given a good deal of historical information, in which they have, we think, done well. At the beginning of the book will be found excellent and succinct accounts of the constitution of the French army and Parliament at the period treated of."—Saturday Review.

- A BOOK OF GERMAN DACTYLIC POETRY. Arranged and Annotated by the same Editor. 3s.
- Der erste Areussug (THE FIRST CRUSADE), by FRIED-RICH VON RAUMER. Condensed from the Author's 'History of the Hohenstausen', with a life of RAUMER, two Plans and English Notes. By the same Editor. 25.
- "Certainly no more interesting book could be made the subject of examinations. The story of the First Crusade has an undying interest. The notes are, on the whole, good."—Educational Times.
- A BOOK OF BALLADS ON GERMAN HISTORY.

 Arranged and Annotated by the same Editor. 25.
- "It carries the reader rapidly through some of the most important incidents connected with the German race and name, from the invasion of Italy by the Visigoths under their King Alaric, down to the Franco-German War and the installation of the present Emperor. The notes supply very well the connecting links between the successive periods, and exhibit in its various phases of growth and progress, or the reverse, the vast unwieldy mass which constitutes modern Germany."—Times.
- DER STAAT FRIEDRICHS DES GROSSEN. By G. FREYTAG. With Notes. By the same Editor. 25.
- "Prussia under Frederick the Great, and France under the Directory, bring us face to face respectively with periods of history which it is right should be known thoroughly, and which are well treated in the Pitt Press volumes."—Times.
- GOETHE'S HERMANN AND DOROTHEA. With an Introduction and Notes. By the same Editor. Revised edition by J. W. CARTMELL, M.A. 3s. 6d.
- "The notes are among the best that we know, with the reservation that they are often too abundant."—Academy.
- Das Sahr 1813 (THE YEAR 1813), by F. KOHLRAUSCH. With English Notes. By the same Editor. 25.

GENERAL AIMS OF THE TEACHER, AND FORM MANAGEMENT. Two Lectures delivered in the University of Cambridge in the Lent Term, 1883, by F. W. FARRAR, D.D. Archdeacon of Westminster, and R. B. POOLE, B.D. Head Master of Bedford Modern School. 16. 6d.

MILTON'S TRACTATE ON EDUCATION. A facsimile reprint from the Edition of 1673. Edited, with Introduction and Notes, by OSCAR BROWNING, M.A., Fellow and Lecturer of King's College, Cambridge, and formerly Assistant Master at Eton College. 25.

"A separate reprint of Milton's famous letter to Master Samuel Hartlib was a desideratum, and we are grateful to Mr Browning for his elegant and scholarly edition, to which is prefixed the careful resume of the work given in his 'History of Educational Theories.'"— Journal of Education.

LOCKE ON EDUCATION. With Introduction and Notes by the Rev. R. H. Quick, M.A. 3s. 6d.

"The work before us leaves nothing to be desired. It is of convenient form and reasonable price, accurately printed, and accompanied by notes which are admirable. There is no teacher too young to find this book interesting; there is no teacher too old to find it profitable."—The School Bulletin, New York.

THE TWO NOBLE KINSMEN, edited with Introduction and Notes by the Rev. Professor SKEAT, M.A., formerly Fellow of Christ's College, Cambridge. 3s. 6d.

"This edition of a play that is well worth study, for more reasons than one, by so careful a scholar as Mr Skeat, deserves a hearty welcome."—Athenæum.

"Mr Skeat is a conscientious editor, and has left no difficulty unexplained."-Times.

BACON'S HISTORY OF THE REIGN OF KING HENRY VII. With Notes by the Rev. J. RAWSON LUMBY, D.D., Norrisian Professor of Divinity; late Fellow of St Catharine's College.

SIR THOMAS MORE'S UTOPIA. With Notes by the Rev. J. RAWSON LUMBY, D.D., Norrisian Professor of Divinity; late Fellow of St Catharine's College, Cambridge. 3s. 6d.

"To Dr Lumby we must give praise unqualified and unstinted. He has done his work admirably. . . . Every student of history, every politician, every social reformer, every one interested in literary curiosities, every lover of English should buy and carefully read Dr Lumby's edition of the 'Utopia.' We are afraid to say more lest we should be thought extravagant, and our recommendation accordingly lose part of its force."—The Teacher.

"I was originally written in Latin and does not find a place on ordinary bookshelves. A very great boon has therefore been conferred on the general English reader by the managers of the Pitt Press Series, in the issue of a convenient little volume of More's Utopia not in the original Latin, but in the quaint English Translation thereof made by Raphe Robynson, which adds a linguistic interest to the intrinsic merit of the work. . . All this has been edited in a most complete and scholarly fashion by Dr J. R. Lumby, the Norrisian Professor of Divinity, whose name alone is a sufficient warrant for its accuracy. It is a real addition to the modern stock of classical English literature."—Guardian.

MORE'S HISTORY OF KING RICHARD III. Edited with Notes, Glossary and Index of Names. By J. RAWSON LUMBY, D.D. Norrisian Professor of Divinity, Cambridge; to which is added the conclusion of the History of King Richard III. as given in the continuation of Harllyng's Chronicle, London, 1543. 35. 6d.

A SKETCH OF ANCIENT PHILOSOPHY FROM THALES TO CICERO, by JOSEPH B. MAYOR, M.A., late Professor of Moral Philosophy at King's College, London. 3s. 6d.

"Professor Mayor contributes to the Pitt Press Series A Sketch of Ancient Philosophy in which he has endeavoured to give a general view of the philosophical systems illustrated by the genius of the masters of metaphysical and ethical science from Thales to Ciero. In the course of his sketch he takes occasion to give concise analyses of Plato's Republic, and of the Ethics and Politics of Aristotle; and these abstracts will be to some readers not the least useful portions of the book."—The Guardian.
